Just A Minute "JAM"

Rulebook 2026

INTRODUCTION

Step into the spotlight at JAM (Just A Minute), where wit, spontaneity, and quick thinking collide. Participants take the stage to speak fearlessly on quirky, thought-provoking topics. Here's the twist: no hesitation, no repetition, no deviation! Every slip is caught by sharp-eyed opponents, every flawless delivery cheered by the crowd. Open to all agile minds and sharp tongues, JAM promises an unforgettable experience where every second counts.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS:

Participation Type - Individual

There will be 5-6 participants competing against each other while the moderator provides a prompt.

Speaking and Interruptions: Participants must speak on the given prompt. They can be interrupted ("JAMed") by other participants who raise objections. The moderator declares each objection valid or invalid.

Turn Progression: The JAMer (person who successfully interrupts) gets the next turn to speak. The process continues in this manner.

Goal: The goal is to maximize your total speaking time by the end of the round.

Moderator's Decision: The moderator's decision is final.

POINTS SYSTEM

- (+3) points for a correct JAM (valid interruption).
- (-1) point for a wrong JAM (invalid interruption).
- (+1) point for every second spoken.
